Mary's Song

1 I look to the hillside, the skies have turned grey,
This place is deserted where love was betrayed.
The life you gave freely was taken from me today.

2 I see it so clearly, the look on your face,
The sadness and sorrow, the pain you embraced,
And now it's all over a silence enfolds the day.

CHORUS: Tell me why did it have to be done,
When my feelings of love are so strong?
Could it be there's a reason
For taking the life of my son?

3 The noises still echo around in my head,
The shouts and the jeering, the crowds as they fled,
But now it's all over and I'm on my own again.

4 I gratefully bore you, I watched as you grew,
I listened and wondered at all that you knew,
But this is the hardest of all that I've learned from you.

CHORUS x 2: Tell me why did it have to be done,
When my feelings of love are so strong?
Could it be there's a reason
For taking the life of my son?

Risen!

Risen! Risen! Jesus is risen!
The spirit was given—Jesus is alive!
Risen! Risen! Jesus is risen!
The spirit was given—Jesus is alive!

Early in the morning on the first day of the week,
Women went to visit at the tomb.
Angels came and told them,
"The one you've come to see,
He isn't here but you will meet Him soon!"

Chorus: Risen! Risen! Jesus is risen!..

Fearful and excited, amazed by all they'd seen,
Mary and her friends ran from the tomb.
Finding the disciples,
Together where they'd meet,
Bursting with joy, they ran into the room.

Chorus: Risen! Risen! Jesus is risen!..

Two of the believers, with thoughts about the week,
Walked the road so lonely and confused.
While they spoke of Jesus,
And all he'd come to mean,
He came along beside them with the news:

Chorus: Risen! Risen! Jesus is risen!..

All of His disciples were terrified to see,
Jesus there before them in the room.
"Why are you so frightened?"
He said, "It's really me!
All of the things I told you have come true!"

Chorus: Risen! Risen! Jesus is risen!..
