

English:

TEXT: Major Glad, Major Dizzy (A tale of two best friend toy soldiers lost beneath the floorboards of a house for 100 years!) —Understanding how to form regular past tense verbs with an _ed suffix.

Instructional writing: using bossy verbs! We will be writing instructions about making jam sandwiches and fruit pizzas.

AT HOME: Can you give instructions to someone to lay the table for dinner?

Music: SAMBA DRUMS

We will be continuing our Samba Drums lessons with Lee Butler.

AT HOME: Can you use some items at home as an instrument to show what you have been learning? (What could be a drum or a shaker?)

PE: (Wednesdays and Fridays—children come to school in PE kit)

Atlas Sports—Gymnastics

Judo

AT HOME: Can you put three gymnastic moves in a sequence and show your family?

Art and Design:

Family pictures

Molly Hausland—Create circle drawings using our body.

Easter Arts and Crafts

AT HOME: Can you draw a picture of your family?

Maths:

Counting in twos, fives and tens.

Odds & Evens

Securing place value knowledge of two digit numbers.

AT HOME: Help with counting chores around the house—counting pairs of socks from the wash basket, lay the correct numbers of knives and forks at the table, cut a cake/toast in half.

Science: continuing on from last term...

Materials—what materials would we use to build?

AT HOME: What materials have been used to make things around your house? (Walls, windows, tables etc)

Topic (History):

Changes in toys and transport over the last 100 years.

Looking at how we have changed over time. (human timelines)

Discovering our family trees.

AT HOME: How have toys and transport changed over the years? Talk to family members about their experiences.

Computing:

Scratch Junior—Continued from last term.

AT HOME: Can you use a computer to type a list of everyone in your family?

PSHE:

Relationships—We will be looking at why families and friends are important and ways to resolve arguments.

AT HOME: Can you describe how you show friends and family that you care about them?

Friends and Family:

Launch: Show & Tell - 'My Friends & Family'

Landing: Family Breakfast